DAN MORALES
ATTORNEY GENERAL

July 14, 1998

Mr. Joe Bridges
Assistant District Attorney
Denton County Criminal District Attorney's Office
Counsel to the Sheriff
127 N. Woodrow Lane
Denton, Texas 76205

OR98-1662

Dear Mr. Bridges:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 116694.

The Denton County Sheriff's Office received a request for any disciplinary and administrative records concerning an incarcerated individual. The requestor is the wife of the incarcerated individual who is the subject of this request. You explain that a similar request was made by the requestor's husband. You state that the requestor is representing the incarcerated individual.

Section 552.028 of the Government Code permits governmental bodies to decline to accept or comply with requests for information submitted by inmates. Section 552.028 states:

(a) A governmental body is not required to accept or comply with a request for information from an individual who is imprisoned or confined in a correctional facility.

(b) Subsection (a) does not prohibit a governmental body from disclosing to an individual described by that subsection information held by the governmental body pertaining to that individual.

(c) In this section, "correctional facility" has the meaning assigned by Section 1.07(a), Penal Code.¹

Gov't Code § 552.028 (footnote added). You suggest that because the person submitting the request is asking on behalf of a person who is in prison, the requestor is attempting to circumvent section 552.028. The requestor is in effect acting as an inmate's agent. We believe that you need not comply with the instant request, as we will explain.

First, we are bound to construe statutes in ways so as not to produce an absurd or unreasonable result. City of Wilmer v. Laidlaw Waste Sys. (Dallas), Inc., 890 S.W.2d 459, 465 (Tex. App.--Dallas 1994), aff'd, 904 S.W.2d 656 (Tex. 1995); see State Highway Dept. v. Gorham, 162 S.W.2d 934 (Tex. 1942); Anderson v. Penix, 161 S.W.2d 455 (Tex. 1942). A construction of section 552.028 that would permit a governmental body to decline to comply with a request submitted by an inmate, on the one hand, but that would require the governmental body to comply with one submitted by an inmate's agent, on the other, is absurd on its face. We decline to adopt such a construction.

Second, construing the provision to require a governmental body to comply with a request submitted by an inmate's agent while at the same time permitting that governmental body to ignore a request submitted by the inmate himself would entail a manifest circumvention of the provision and frustrate the obvious intent of the legislature when it enacted section 552.028. We conclude that section 552.028 of the Government Code, which permits a governmental body to decline to accept or comply with a request for information that is submitted by an individual who is imprisoned or confined in a correctional facility, also permits a governmental body to decline to accept or comply with a request that is submitted by that person's agent. You need not comply with the request for information at issue.

¹Section 1.07(a)(14) of the Penal Code provides:

"Correctional facility" means a place designated by law for the confinement of a person arrested for, charged with, or convicted of a criminal offense. The term includes:

- (A) a municipal or county jail;
- (B) a confinement facility operated by the Texas Department of Criminal Justice;
- (C) a confinement facility operated under contract with any division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice; and
- (D) a community corrections facility operated by a community supervision and corrections department.

We are resolving this matter with an informal letter ruling rather than with a published open records decision. This ruling is limited to the particular records at issue under the facts presented to us in this request and should not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records. If you have questions about this ruling, please contact our office.

Yours very truly,
